PROMO REEL AVAILABLE

THE PRINCE OF NOTHINGWOOD

by Sonia Kronlund
FRENCH/dari - DOCUMENTARY
Production: Gloria film (France)
Territories sold: France, Austria, Germany

At around 100 Km from Kabul, Salim Shaheen, the most prolific and popular actor-director-producer in Afghanistan, came to show several of his 110 features films and, in passing, shoot the next one.

This trip, in which he brought his actors, all more eccentric and out of control than the last, is the opportunity to meet this film lover, who has made relentlessly Z-movies in a country at war for more than thirty years. The prince of Nothingwood tells the story of a life spent to accomplish a child's dream.

Pierre is a 30-year-old dairy farmer. His life is structured around the family dairy farm he took over, his cows, his veterinarian sister and his retired parents. When the first cases of an epizootic disease break out in France, Pierre finds out that one of his cows might be infected. Pierre cannot accept to lose his farm. He has nothing else and he will do whatever it takes to save it.

UPCOMING

PLOT 35

by Eric Caravaca
DOCUMENTARY
Production: Les Films du poisson (France)
Territories sold: France

Plot 35 is a place that was never mentioned in my family; it is where my elder sister, who died aged three, is buried. The sister about whom I was told nothing, or nearly nothing, and of whom my parents had oddly never kept a single photograph. It was to make up for the missing images that I decided to make this film. Thinking that I would simply chronicle a forgotten life, in fact I opened up the hidden door to a past that I was unaware of, to the subconscious memory that lies inside each of us and who makes us what we are.
