TORONTO INTERNATIONAL
FILM FESTIVAL 2026

CENTREPIECE

by Gessica Génés
("Freda")

In Jacmel, Haiti, the sea, the churches, and the spirits shape daily life. Marie Madeleine is a free woman. She makes a living as a prostitute and navigates the nights without submitting to the rules of those who save souls. Her path crosses Joseph's, a young evangelist. A relationship blossoms between these two opposite beings. As Joseph's faith wavers, Marie Madeleine draws him into a world where desire and the quest for freedom open up a space where everything can be reinvented.

DEMOCRACY NOW!

by Cyril Dion ("Tomorrow")
& Paloma Moritz

Democracy is falling out all over the world. Three people out of four now live under authoritarian regimes. At the same time, global warming is accelerating, and species continue to go extinct. What if these two crises, rather than being separate, were actually fueling one another? Democracy Now! sets out to meet citizens who are experimenting with new forms of democratic renewal. In Brazil, Belgium, but also in the U.S. and France: awareness is growing, and solutions are emerging. Regardless of our differences, we all need the same thing: more democracy.

PRODUCTION: CAPA ("Tomorrow") - France, BRIGHT, BRIGHT, BRIGHT - France

TERRITORIES SOLD: Benelux, France, Germany & Austria, Switzerland
